

The Next Pardon in the Reform Farce, from "Harper's Weekly"

Date
published May 15, 1875

Primary Maker
Thomas Nast

Medium
Wood engraving on newsprint

Description
Man holding top hat hands over paper to a man in a striped suit reading "New Pardons / to the / Tammany / Ring. (Boss.)" The first man has other papers coming out of his pockets reading "New Suits / and / New Pardons / for the / Tammany Ring", "Suits / and / Pardons", and "Arrest / for / Canal Ring". In the background a sign reads "Tammany / Ring / Prison / Head-Quarters." Writing on hills in the background read "Prison / Suits / and / Pardon / Suits / Always", and "Reform / Pills / Good / for / Politicians." "(?)" typeset following title in black ink. Captioned "GOVERNOR TILDEN. 'That you may be able to give State Evidence against--let's see--oh!--the Canal Ring.'" typeset beneath title in black ink.

Dimensions
Composition: 10 3/4 in. x 9 in. (27.3 x 22.9 cm) Sheet: 15 13/16 x 10 7/8 in. (40.2 x 27.6 cm)